Vorarlberg – The Feel of Snow

Come winter, the pulse of life in Vorarlberg is miraculously transformed. First moving in Schladming: soft and chilly daylight, delightful winter wonderland: hikers, skiers or snowboarders being bused from bus stops against the backdrop of a snow-capped mountain. The ski season in Vorarlberg begins at the end of October.

Mt. Teide, Tenerife (photo by sdsmedia.de) – Winter in Europe.

How to Reach Vorarlberg

www.vorarlberg.travel, #visitvorarlberg

By car

• One-year sticker for passenger vehicles EUR 87.30
• 10-day sticker for passenger vehicles EUR 9

Kempten-Immenstadt or Füssen-Immenstadt or Lindau-Immen-Lechtal road from Warth nach Lech is closed in winter). If you take the route via Reutte–Lechtal–Bregenzerwald (Note: the L 198 Silvretta high alpine road via Bielerhöhe. Secondary roads: usually the L 198 Lechtalstrasse (Lech-Warth) road or via Reutte–Lechtal–Bregenzerwald (Note: the L 198 Silvretta high alpine road via Bielerhöhe. Secondary roads: usually the L 198 Lechtalstrasse (Lech-Warth)

By air

The nearest airports (distance in km to Bregenz):

• Lake Constance-Airport Friedrichshafen (G, 35 km), serving destinations from/to Germany.
• Allgäu-Airport Memmingen (G, 77 km), direct service from/to Vienna.
• Lake Constance-Airport Friedrichshafen (G, 35 km), serving destinations from/to Germany.
• Walsertal is Oberstdorf/Allgäu (G). (www.deutschebahn.com and www.autoreisezug-planer.de).

Six Inviting Regions

Vorarlberg is as moody a place as it is flexible and always on time. The system of public transport is extremely well developed. Train and bus services are closely integrated with the Vorarlberg Transport Network.

World famous: Lech Zürs am Arlberg

Where alpine skiing is truly established, area ski maps, mapped out and free. Ski-touring options are nearly endless, leading you to specific destinations. In the Arlberg region, it’s all about the perfect combination of history, tradition and comfort, plus outdoor activities. There are actually more things to do here than there are to do in most mountain villages. In the new era of ski travel, it’s all about the perfect combination of history, tradition and comfort. So much that it’s hard to decide which destination to choose. Whether you’re looking for traditional ski slopes or for something more offbeat, there are plenty of options. In addition to skiing, there are many other activities to choose from, such as cross-country skiing, snowboarding, hiking and more. The Arlberg region is known for its picturesque landscapes and charming ski resorts, making it a popular destination for winter sports enthusiasts.

Inspiring: Bregenzerwald

A beautiful place to spend a winter’s day. In Bregenzerwald, the natural and cultural landscape is an enchantment in itself. A place where you can feel at home, where the air is pure and fresh. More information?

Nature-loving: Kleinwalsertal

Kleinwalsertal is the largest interconnected ski area spanning Austria and Germany, with ski slopes, ski lifts, snowboarding and cross-country skiing. It’s a paradise for nature lovers, with a mix of mountains, forests and rivers, making it the perfect destination for winter sports enthusiasts.

Montafon

Special winter moments: Montafon

Montafon is a delightful place to spend a winter’s day. In Montafon, the natural and cultural landscape is an enchantment in itself. A place where you can feel at home, where the air is pure and fresh. More information?

Family-friendly: Brandnertal, Alpbachtal-Silvretta, Klosters-Serneus, Grisons

Brandnertal and the Silvretta are a nice area for families. In Brandnertal, there are plenty of activities for all ages, including skiing, snowboarding, cross-country skiing and hiking. The Silvretta region offers similar activities, including skiing, snowboarding and cross-country skiing.

Feldkirch is a charming place to spend a winter’s day. In Feldkirch, the natural and cultural landscape is an enchantment in itself. A place where you can feel at home, where the air is pure and fresh. More information?

Bregenzerwald

Special winter moments: Bregenzerwald

Bregenzerwald is a delightful place to spend a winter’s day. In Bregenzerwald, the natural and cultural landscape is an enchantment in itself. A place where you can feel at home, where the air is pure and fresh. More information?
On-slope & Cross-country

The ski schools offer guided tours and courses. Such enticing splendour! Make a dash for snow on high-tech ropeways and high-adrenalin downhill rides. The choice of runs is dazzling, and if you are in need of a rest or a bite, visit one of the ski huts and taste some of the most delicious local dishes. Skiing in Vorarlberg is fantastic, and proposals for snowshoe rambles. The Gottesacker plateau in the Kleinwalsertal is 5.5km. Twice a week, the Happy Tobogganing tour starts. During seven days, the trail takes skiers through ski areas and into the open terrain, from the Kleinwalsertal in the north to the Bielerhöhe in the south. In seven days, the trail takes skiers through ski areas and into the open terrain, from the Kleinwalsertal in the north to the Bielerhöhe in the south.

Full of Character & Atmosphere

Vorarlberg’s highest cross-country trails at the Silvretta-Bielerhöhe in the Montafon. An insider’s hint for experienced skiers is the six-hour ascent to the Summertime and the Serenades. The world-famous Kästle Museum showcases the most sought-after clothing and equipment. The museum is located in a former mill, and visitors can learn about the history of the industry and its development. The Lech Zürs am Arlberg, the Kästle Museum showcases the most sought-after clothing and equipment. The museum is located in a former mill, and visitors can learn about the history of the industry and its development.

Delicious & Delectable

Vorarlberg isst – all about food and drink. In Vorarlberg, you can taste and experience a variety of culinary delights. From classic Swiss dishes to contemporary brasserie-style cuisine, you’ll find something to suit your taste. Vorarlberg is known for its fresh and local produce, and the region’s cuisine reflects this. Fresh, regional and refined! The variety of culinary experiences offers something for everyone. The region’s cuisine reflects this. Fresh, regional and refined! The variety of culinary experiences offers something for everyone. From traditional Swiss dishes to contemporary brasserie-style cuisine, you’ll find something to suit your taste.

Perfectly shaped & Hand-crafted

From clay and wood to metal and glass, Vorarlberg’s artisans create unique pieces that are both functional and aesthetically pleasing. From traditional woodcarving and metalworking to contemporary design, you’ll find something to suit your taste. From clay and wood to metal and glass, Vorarlberg’s artisans create unique pieces that are both functional and aesthetically pleasing. From traditional woodcarving and metalworking to contemporary design, you’ll find something to suit your taste.

Winter tours & Nordic hiking

Explore the Bregenzerwald Village – Looking at the landscape, you will notice small villages with traditional wooden chalets and farmhouses. In each village, you can find local products and traditional dishes. In each village, you can find local products and traditional dishes. In each village, you can find local products and traditional dishes.

Wine & Mountain

In Lech Zürs am Arlberg, wine makers and connoisseurs meet. Several smaller museums shed light on the sport of skiing in past and present. Ski & Museums – All year around, Vorarlberg offers a variety of museums and galleries. From traditional woodcarving and metalworking to contemporary design, you’ll find something to suit your taste.

Weekend-er: The new Vorarlberg Journal

Vorarlberg’s lifestyle and culinary scene is exciting, diverse and vibrant. The newspaper offers a wide range of articles on food, wine, art, design and culture. The newspaper offers a wide range of articles on food, wine, art, design and culture. The newspaper offers a wide range of articles on food, wine, art, design and culture.